College of Education Majors (Undergraduate, graduate, and professional)

To support the professional success of its majors, the College of Education will consider offering several travel stipends in 2016-17 to its majors for study abroad that provides UI academic credit. Those interested in being considered for the same should make a brief (less than 1-page) application to Ms. Sue Cline (sue-cline@uiowa.edu), Coordinator, Office of Student Services, COE, providing the following information, by September 21.

Full Name:

Major:

Class Level (Year, Undergraduate, Graduate, Professional):

Name of Advisor:

Study Abroad Program (Course, Instructor, # of hours UI SH credit):

How the experience will benefit your program of study at the UI (less than 50 words):

To benefit from several other study abroad funding opportunities, students should also explore the following,

Students who are Iowa residents, sophomores, and in good standing will automatically qualify for a $1,000 award, please check the following, https://international.uiowa.edu/study-abroad/funding/scholarships/other-ui/iowa-abroad

International students should explore the following, https://international.uiowa.edu/study-abroad/funding/scholarships/semester-year/international

There are many other awards, for some you have to make an application, and for others you are considered automatically. Please check with Study Abroad.

Need-based (biggest pool of funds), Merit-based, Diversity & Enrichment, CLAS, Nursing, Tippie, Engineering, Honors, and others.